

What our Structure Could Look Like Under an Affiliation Agreement

Done the right way, through affiliation, our focus becomes representation and organizing power in the workplace. Overhead, office, and administrative functions would be assumed by the affiliating union. Additionally, we would benefit from full-time in-house lawyers, communications, research, and lobbying staff.

